REBELS MOVING ON CAPITAL

South American Peace Envoys Hope to See a Constitutional Government Set Up in Mexico City Which the United States Can Recognize Before the Rebels Secure Control.Niagara Falls, Ont., May 25.—In the hope of seeing a provisional government that the United States can recognize established in Mexico City before the Constitutionalists can seize control the Pan-American mediators are preparing for the crisis in their deliberations, which is expected this week.After playing at foils for two or three days it has become evident that the hour for serious business has arrived. The Mexican delegates themselves felt this the more keenly as the Constitutionalists continued their victorious march toward the capital.Should the Huerta government collapse as the Constitutionalists approach it is realized that a condition of chaos and anarchy would result.The mediators are working rapidly in the hope of seeing a new provisional government established which may be given prompt recognition and support by the United States.The Mexican delegates believe that a government set up by the Constitutionalists cannot last long if unrecognized by the United States and world powers. They declare that a new revolution would be inevitable.

Rely Upon United States.

It is in the hope of averting such a contingency that they are relying upon the United States to enforce a strict embargo on the exportation of arms to all factions in Mexico.Should Carranza still be in the field when an agreement is reached here it is the opinion of the mediators that the influence of the United States may be relied upon to bring the Constitutionalists to terms.The mediators are understood to expect that even if the Constitutionalists do reach Mexico City before an agreement is reached the American government will not recognize them until principles for the pacification of the country are agreed upon.The Mexican delegates do not believe that the Constitutionalists can reach the capital in less than two months as the retreating federal army is tearing up the railways as it retreats and gathering strength in the more thickly populated sections north of Mexico City.The mediators consider that the internal and international phases of the Mexican problem are inseparable.

BLANQUET DEFIES HUERTA

Mexican Minister of War Countermands Order for Execution.

Vera Cruz, May 25.—According to Spanish refugees who arrived here from Mexico City, President Huerta and General Blanquet, war minister, clashed a few days ago over the question of executing certain prisoners in the penitentiary, the war minister having countermanded an order given by Huerta for their death.General Blanquet is said to have defied Huerta, informing him that if he desired his further co-operation in the affairs of government he would not pass sentence of death upon any prisoner without the minister's acquiescence.MEXICANS FIRE ON AMERICAN AIRMEN.Vera Cruz, May 25.—Navy hydroaeroplanes were fired upon by the Mexican outposts. A dozen shots were sent after the airmen, who were sailing high in the air. The bullets sang over the heads of the American sentries, but failed to reach their marks.

Physician Says Author Can Live Only

Short Time.

Barre, Mass., May 25.—"Slowly sinking" was the report of the condition of Jacob A. Riis, who is ill of heart trouble. His physician expressed the belief that he can live only a short time.

COKE PRODUCTION RECORDS BROKEN.

Washington, May 25.—All records of production of coke in the United States were broken in 1913, when the total output was 46,311,369 short tons, valued at $128,951,430. This was greater by 2,327,000 short tons than that of 1912, which was the previous high record year.

DOCK WORKERS STRIKE.

MISSING SINCE MARCH 31

Rev. Louis R. Patmont, a Prohibition Advocate, Who Disappeared From Westville, Ill., Was Found in an Abandoned House Near Columbia, Ill., in a Half Starved Condition.St. Louis, May 25.—Rev. Louis R.
Patmont, the prohibition advocate who was kidnapped from Westville, Ill., on March 31 and found in an abandoned house near Columbia, Ill., declared here he knows the persons responsible for his detention. He is on his way to Danville, Ill., where the grand jury of Vermillion county, now in session, will turn aside immediately from all other matters to take up the investigation of his kidnapping.He said a big red automobile owned in Danville was used in abducting him.
He declared he was dragged and carried, half conscious, from one hiding place to another for fifty days. He said he knows the owner of the car.
When he was not being transported in the machine, Patmont said, he was kept in dark cellars, gagged and his hands bound to a bar of wood under his knees. The abandoned building in which he was found bore evidence of the intention of his captors to burn the house and incinerate the minister, the plans for which Patmont says he heard his captors discuss.With a two-months' growth of beard, half starved and almost black with dirt Patmont was brought to St. Louis by Rev. John L. Brandt, pastor of the First Christian church of St. Louis, who made a flying trip to and from Columbia by automobile as soon as he heard that Patmont had been found. After a bath and a real meal, the first he had tasted in two months, Patmont told his story.Patmont was identified positively by Rev. Mr. Brandt, who has known him for years. Before being brought to St. Louis he was identified further by half a dozen residents of Vermillion county, among them Rev. J. F. Bickel, pastor of the First Christian church, Danville, Ill.Rev. Mr. Bickel, John H. Lawman, prosecuting attorney of Vermillion county, and Deputy Sheriff Coit of that county accompanied Patmont to St. Louis. Patmont, Bickel and the prosecuting attorney departed for Danville. Rev. Mr. Bickel declared that an automobile fitting Rev. Mr.
Patmont's description is owned by a wealthy citizen of Vermillion county who was bitter against Patmont because of the latter's activity in the prohibition movement.Rev. Mr. Patmont disappeared after a day meeting, in which he was one of the speakers, at Westville, Ill.

ROCK ISLAND COMES NEXT

Commerce Commission Will Probe

Financial Affairs.

Washington, May 25.—Three directors of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, in addition to those already summoned, have been served with notices to testify before the interstate commerce commission which resumes its investigation into the affairs of the New Haven Tuesday.
Their names are De Var H. Warner, Lawrence Minot and J. S. Elton.
Following the completion of the New Haven investigation the interstate commerce commission will begin the inquiry into the financial affairs of the Rock Island railroad and this is expected to consume some weeks.

WORLD Y. W. C. A. TO MEET

Delegates to Assemble in Stockholm

June 10-18.

New York, May 25.—The main subject for discussion at the fifth conference of the world's Young Women's Christian association, which is to assemble at Stockholm, Sweden, on June 10 to 18, will be "the unfolding of the true plan for women in God's purpose for the world," according to announcement made here by the American committee.

NEW LIGHTSHIP IS LOST

Crew of Sixteen Men Believed to Have Perished.

Halifax, N. S., May 25.—Of sixteen men on the new lightship, Halifax 19, which went on the ledge off Liscomb, the bodies of six have been found and the search for the other is still in progress.Liscomb is a lumbering and fishing port less than 100 miles east of Halifax and it was on Crooks Ledge, four miles outside the anchorage in the harbor, where the lightship went to its fate, with all hands.The craft had sailed from Glasgow and two days ago put in at St. Johns, N. F., on its way to this port.

SENATOR BRADLEY.

Noted Kentuckian Is Dead at Washington.

SENATOR BRADLEY IS DEAD

Fall Aggravated Long Illness of Kentucky Lawmaker.Washington, May 25.—William O.
Bradley, United States senator from Kentucky, died here after a lingering illness aggravated by a fall.Senator Bradley was one of the most distinguished Republican leaders of Kentucky in his generation. An orator of unusual ability, for forty years he has been prominent before the people of his state and the nation.Born in 1847 he was only fourteen years old when the Civil war broke out. Twice he ran away from home to join the Union army, only to be taken from the ranks by his father because of his extreme youth. As a page of the lower house of the Kentucky legislature he attracted such attention that at the age of eighteen a special act was passed by the legislature enabling him to practice law. He made the law his profession through life.RAILWAY MEN MAY TAKE STRIKE VOTEAction Will Affect All Lines West of Chicago.St. Paul, May 25.—A strike vote is expected to be ordered by engineers, firemen and trainmen on all the roads west of Chicago this week.The negotiations at Chicago which have been pending between trainmen and officials of the railroads since Jan. 26 may close soon, according to authoritative sources. The roads entering St. Paul that will be affected are the Burlington, Chicago Great Western, St. Paul road, Rock Island, Omaha, Great Northern, Northern Pacific, Soo Line, Minneapolis and St.
Louis and Rock Island lines.Provided the strike vote ends in a walkout traffic between Chicago and St. Paul and on all the lines named will be at a standstill.Hearings on the demands have extended over four months. The men have asked for increased wages and improved working conditions and in general their statement includes those things awarded trainmen of the Eastern railroads by the government mediation board. This board will be appealed to settle the difficulties, provided the men walk out.

FATAL FIGHT AT A DANCE

One Man Killed and Another Receives Serious Wounds.Grand Rapids, Minn., May 25.—One man is dead and another seriously wounded as the result of a fight following a dance at Sago, four miles from Swan River. Jack Neva, according to his own story, shot and killed Anto Hakman. Neva was brought from Swan River by Deputy Sheriff E. J. Carson and placed in jail. Before Hakman was killed he shot and seriously injured Torvo T.
Korhonen, who was with Neva. Neva says he took the gun from Hakman and shot him.

EMPRESS DOWAGER BURIED

American Colony at Tokio Views

Funeral Procession.

Tokio, May 25.—A million torches and lanterns illuminated Tokio when the body of the Empress Dowager Haruko was borne through the streets in a beautiful funeral car drawn by white oxen. There had been no pageant of such solemn grandeur here since the funeral of Emperor Mutsuhito a year and a half ago.Practically the entire American colony viewed the procession from various points of vantage. It is a rule that no Japanese subjects may look down upon a royal personage from elevated points, whether dead or alive. In strict observance of this every door and window above the first floor along the funeral route was closed and dark.The ceremonies were the culmination of a series of services held daily since the official death of the empress dowager on April 11.

PRAISE HARRISON'S POLICY.

Governor General Believes in Appointing Natives to Office, Thus Arousing Patriotism by Means of a Payroll.
Conditions Materially Changed in Recent Years.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, May 25.—[Special.]— Everybody knows that it would be impossible in any one session of congress to enact into law all the declarations of a national platform. It is not surprising that several important planks of the Baltimore platform have been neglected in the crush of other legislation.At the same time there is some surprise at a plank which was as important as that declaring for the independence of the Philippines, particularly as it called attention to the fact that it had been in three previous platforms, has been allowed to go overboard. The action of the Democratic caucus precludes consideration of the Philippine bill. And yet this same measure was brought forward in the last congress and advocated with considerable earnestness. It is possible that since the new administration has had an opportunity to send its own men to the Philippines a different opinion prevails than when the opposition party was in control.

"Philippinizing the Filipinos."

I was told the other day that Governor Harrison was pursuing a policy in the Philippine Islands which was called "Philippinizing the Filipinos." Governor Harrison's policy is to put Filipinos in the various departments and to appoint them to all offices which they can fill with any degree of success. It appears that this policy is proving popular, and it naturally reduces the desire for independence.Beyond question, every Filipino who gets an office has a higher respect for the United States government, as there is nothing like a salary to make a man loyal. One of the complaints of the Philippines was that they were being governed by "carpet buggers," which is distasteful to any people anywhere.

Predicted Amalgamation.

In one of those brisk running fights between Congressman Henry of Texas and Congressman Murdock of Kansas the leader of the Progressives predicted an amalgamation, which caused no little comment. "I speak," said Murdock, "for the independent Democrats, the independent Republicans and the Progressives, who in time will amalgamate in this country and clean out the Democrats and their secret caucus and the rules committee. Give us time."

Sounded Good to Knowland.

During consideration of a bill in the house Congressman Knowland of California had charge of the time, and congressman Sloan of Nebraska asked him to yield, which he did, and Sloan closed with this remark:"We know that the gentleman from California, Mr. Knowland, in his ten years' service in the house has distinguished himself among his colleagues, who admire and honor him as a faithful and forceful representative whose ability, age and experience particularly fit him for the high office which he seeks, and I know the Pacific coast state could make no better selection.""Would the gentleman like any more time?" asked Knowland.

Still Has the House Habit.

Ollie James of Kentucky still has the house habit. This habit is lasting longer with Ollie than it usually does with members of the house who are promoted to the senate. For a year the promoted members are often seen in the house talking with their old colleagues, but after that the senatorial habit grips them, and they are seldom seen on the house side. Senator James is not only a frequent visitor to the house side, but he still retains the prerogative of attending the house caucus.

Giving Him a Guess.

Chairman Adamson of the interstate commerce commission wanted to pass a bill for revenue cutters, but he told the house that he had been notified by numerous of the great leaders of the house that he could not get the bill through for four hours, but could get it through for two, and therefore he accepted what he could get. Finally during the discussion Congressman Townsend of New Jersey remarked to Adamson: "That is important information. Are you at liberty to give us the source of it?""I suppose," answered the Georgia man, "if the gentleman will make up a combination of his information, his intuition and his knowledge derived from experience in this house he can answer that without my telling him anything."

Change in Alabama.

The greatest change that has occurred since the war in the Alabama delegation will take place when the Sixty-fourth congress assembles. One senator and one-half of the membership of the house will be new men, something that has not happened in an fifty years. Alabama is not apt to make many changes in its congressional delegation.

Bartholdt Says Cloud Covers Sun of Freedom.St. Louis, May 25.—"The dark specter of Puritanism is beclouding the sun of freedom. It is the lot of the present generation to defend the sovereignty of the individual against the tyranny of the majority." With these words Congressman Richard Bartholdt of Missouri declared here that Carl Schurz, Emil Preterorius and Carl Daenzer would find a new fight for freedom to be waged if they were living in this epoch.Mr. Bartholdt spoke at the unveiling of a monument to the three German editors, erected in commemoration of their support of the Union during the Civil war."All three stepped," he said "from the German revolution into the American Civil war. They loved this country with patriotic fervor. They adorned Americanism with all that is good and true and beautiful in German civilization."HELD FOR MURDER COMMITTED IN 1900Two Men Accused of Killing Farmer for Money.Thief River Falls, Minn., May 25.— Joseph and Fred La Count of this city were arrested charged with a murder committed fourteen years ago.
They were taken to Crookston and placed in jail.Sheriff Kelly of Polk county, who made the arrests, read the warrant to the men, explaining that they must answer to the charge of killing J.
Lande, a Polk county farmer, in 1900.
Joseph La Count turned pale when he learned that he must face trial for murder. He staggered as he was taken in custody by the sheriff."I don't know anything about it," he muttered.Fred La Count was unmoved and remained silent.The arrests were the result of disclosures made by a farmhand who lives near Crookston. His name is Poveau and he is said to have been drunk when he told the story of the killing of Lande.Poveau declares he was a witness to the crime.He says he promised to keep the secret provided he was given a part of the money that the La Counts expected to get from their victim.
Lande had sold a farm and it was thought he was carrying about $2,000, but, Poveau said, only $80 was obtained.

ITALIAN MARINES ON GUARD

Prince William Returns to the Albanian Palace.Durazzo, Albania, May 25.—Prince William of Albania, formerly Prince William of Wilied, upon whom the rule of Albania was conferred by the powers last February, is again in the palace in Durazzo, guarded by Italian marines. Outside the city the insurgent supporters of Essad Pasha, former minister of war, who a few days ago was deported, are threatening the existence of the new regime.Representatives of the insurgents demanded of the international commission that they be allowed to confer with Prince William, who had fled from the town and taken refuge aboard the Italian cruiser Misurata.Prince William, accompanied by the staff of the Italian admiral, came ashore and was followed by Princess Sophia, but their children and suite were left aboard the cruiser.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

At the Columbia

The attention of the entire city of Brainerd and surrounding country is herewith called to the coming to the Columbia on Wednesday and Thursday of Pasquali's masterpiece in 8 reels "The Last Days of Pompeii." The Columbia will give this wonder of wonders for 10 cents to everyone. This work of art should be seen to be appreciated. An augmented orchestra has been engaged and taken as a whole the performance will be notable. This film played the Rex in Duluth and played to capacity business for 4 days.

At the Park Theatre

The Park Theatre will show a masterpiece in moving pictures entitled "Quo Vadis", in eight reels, the production appearing shortly.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday there will be pictures and vaudeville. Commencing next Sunday, May 31, the Park Theatre shows a straight picture program for the summer at 5c and 10c. Manager Adams will present a matinee performance on Decoration Day.

"The Clever Woman"

In "The Clever Woman" James Forbes has written a splendid comedy for May Robson. There is hardly another woman on the American stage who can make people laugh as does Miss Robson and no woman can show so well what a difference a few clothes can make. Her first entrance in the play shows here typical of the woman whose years have been mainly given over to work and the home. With her "middle age spread" her tired walk, and her Omaha dress she raises a riot of laughter, and the riot is not quelled for three amusing acts.

Mr. Forbes still has the faculty for clever lines which he has displayed in his earlier work. Here are a few of the flashes which he sends out through Miss Robson in "The Clever Woman."

"All men are stubborn, your father is just plain mule."

"Louis XI took to religion, but all the other Louis took to furniture."

"I can never tell when I am eating whether to work from the forks out or the spoons in."

"Every man is a Mormon at heart."

"Any wife can get what she wants out of a husband if she keeps digging at him long enough."

And in the play there are also many homely truths forced home, as in the speech where the mother says: "Mat Lamson, you may think I am old and fat, and out of date, but I don't care, and I am going to stay right here, because, Mat, I know I'm the right woman for you." At the Park Theatre tonight, Monday, May 25th.

The commencement exercises of the Brainerd high school will be held on Monday evening, June 1, and the commencement address will be delivered by George Vincent, president of the University of Minnesota.

On May 29 the class day exercises of the class of 1914 will be held in the assembly room of the high school, the seniors giving the comedy, "A Case of Suspicion."

At this time the class memorial, a beautiful large panel picture, the equal of any of the fine pictures of the high school, will be unveiled to the school. This picture a fine Copley print from the original paintings by Abbey, would be a credit to any school. It represents scenes from the "Holy Grail" and was secured through D. E. Whitney of this city, who will frame it and place it in the high school, where it will be a fitting companion piece to the picture presented by the class of 1912.

The present senior class will also have a special edition of the Spectator, the last number of the year, for sale at 15c per copy.

HOME RULE FOR IRELAND

Special to The Dispatch:—

London—The Irish Home Rule bill passed its third reading in the House of Commons today by majority of seventy-eight. The vote was, for 352, against 274. The bill now becomes a law after this stage, as it already had twice passed through all its stages in the House of Commons in two separate sessions, and a veto of the House of Lords therefore has no further effect.

Saturday this year, the schools will participate as usual and will furnish the wreaths and flowers with which to decorate the graves.

The class officers of the class of 1914 are President George Ribbel, vice president Mildred Farwell, secretary Leslie Halladay, treasurer Alice McKay, sergeant-at-arms Maude S. Williams. The class colors are cadet blue and gold, the class flower the peony. The class motto is "To Be Rather Than to Seem."

The baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Rev. G. P. Sheridan at the First Congregational church on Sunday evening, May 31. On Saturday the juniors gave an excursion up the river for the seniors and members of the faculty. A picnic was given at Riverton.

LANDSCAPE WORK

Paul M. Mueller, of Minneapolis, to Speak on Landscape Scheme for This City

Paul M. Mueller, a noted landscape architect of Minneapolis, who has been in Bemidji consulting about a landscape scheme for that city, has been invited to stop over in Brainerd and see what can be done for Brainerd along this line. He will give a talk in the Commercial club rooms Tuesday night at eight o'clock, to which all who are at all interested in a comprehensive landscape plan for Brainerd are invited. This address will be open to the public, no admission will be charged, and everyone is urged to be present.

HUBERT SAW MILL BURNED

Tony Bohlke Loses His Mill Including Machinery and Some Lumber—No Insurance

Saturday morning at 5 o'clock the saw mill owned and operated by Tony Bohlke at Hubert was discovered to be on fire and in spite of heroic efforts the building burned to the ground. The planer, saws and other machinery is a total loss, together with a quantity of lumber and it will mean a loss of nearly $1,000. Mr. Bohlke had about 30,000 feet of logs still to saw and it is not known whether the mill will be replaced at this time. The fire probably caught from a spark which smoldered in the saw dust for hours before it burst into a flame. Mr. Bohlke carried no insurance on the plant on account of the excessive rate.

BRAINERD SHUTS OUT LITTLE FALLS

Beats Down River Town by a Score of 3 to 0 on Sunday Afternoon Before Big Crowd

VICTOR ON SLAB FOR LOCALS

Dominick Savagely Attacked in First Inning, Lets in Three Runs Then Puts on Lid

Savagely attacked by the batting artillery of Brainerd bats, Al Dominick wavered in the first inning of the game at Little Falls, and before he braced up three runs had patterned across the home plate and Brainerd had the game sewed up tight.

After that it was air-tight pitching by Al Victor and Dominick. Brainerd fielded well and but one lone Little Falls man got as far as third base.

In the first inning Erickson got a base on balls and perched on the initial sack. Parker struck out. Cook nailed a hit and made first. Tommy Templeton rapped one out into the infield and the bases were filled. Bud Roderick hit to short-stop and the Little Falls short bobbled the ball and Erickson safely slid to home and brought in the first run for Brainerd.

With three on bases, Sig Sheffield came to bat. He rapped the ball inside of third base and brought in Cook and Templeton. Ira Roderick hit a long fly to deep center and Roderick was caught off second and the side retired.

Gaven caught a fine game for Brainerd. Parker distinguished himself in the outer garden. The Brainerd team, as a whole, played well in the pinches.

Little Falls has practically the team it had two years ago, the players including Tanner, Laurerman, Kidder, Dominick, Berg.

This coming Saturday and Sunday, May 30 and 31, Brainerd plays Cloquet in Brainerd. It is said Cloquet figures on importing a pitcher named Hanson from Duluth. Last year they starred Cunningham and it is believed Hanson will excel him on the slab.

James Alderman will pitch for Brainerd at the Saturday game and Victor will be on the slab Sunday.

NEW LAUNCH SERVICE

Brainerd-Riverton Line Established by G. P. Stein and W. J. Mooney, of Brainerd

G. P. Stein and W. J. Mooney, of Brainerd, have established a Brainerd-Riverton launch service. They have a 12 horsepower launch carrying 30 passengers which makes regular trips between the two towns and also secures quite a passenger list from Ironton, three miles from Riverton.

The launch leaves Rice lake dock at the foot of Lake avenue in Brainerd at 4 o'clock and arrives in Riverton at 5:30. Returning, the boat leaves at 7 and arrives in Brainerd at 8:05 P. M. The fare is 50c a single trip and 75c for the round trip.

The boat carried a large list of passengers today, when regular service was inaugurated. The launch, known as the "Vivo" may also be engaged for special trips by telephoning to 240-J, the phone number of Mr. Stein.

AN IMPLEMENT DEALER

That is What Bert Crocker Believed Ole Rodman to be When Former Got Holst Wagon

"I believed Ole Rodman to be an implement dealer," said Bert Crocker, giving testimony in his own behalf in the district court this morning. Crocker is accused of grand larceny in the first degree, of taking a wagon from W. F. Holst.

Crocker testified that Rodman showed him an implement catalog. "Did you ever know Rodman to do any work?" asked County Attorney Swanson of Crocker.

In reply Crocker said he believed Rodman to be in the implement business.

Steve Cameron testified that he also saw the machinery catalog.

Rodman and Shanks were arrested at the time Crocker was and are serving a sentence in the reformatory. They were brought from St. Cloud to give their evidence in the Crocker case.

"BREAK AWAY" SAYS ST. PAUL

St. Paul Daily News' Editorial on "Only Conservative City in Northern Minnesota"

CITES EXAMPLE OF ST. PAUL

Brainerd's Awakening an Indication of the Life Throbbing through North Country

"The St. Paul Daily News has an inspiring editorial headed 'Break Away' and applying to Brainerd's civic awakening. The editorial states:

"Brainerd, break away!" they're saying in Brainerd today.

For the only conservative city in Northern Minnesota has awakened to what it can do and what it is going to do, with a new and enterprising chamber of commerce which it is forming.

Brainerd wants to "break away" from the shackles of depending forever upon the one enterprise that "made" the city—in Brainerd's case a railroad. It loomed great once, but now Crookston and Hibbing and Virginia are outstripping the railroad city. Other cities are springing up in the iron range in the night, without asking a railroad's permission.

American cities are generally "made" by some one activity or industry. But the metropolitan city refuses meekly to "stay put." Minneapolis was "made" by the lumber mills. Today nearly all those great mills are gone with the forests they denuded. But Minneapolis is growing faster than ever.

St. Paul—long and justly proud of its railroads and wholesale houses—is as proud of them as ever, but has awakened to the need of other and diversified interests.

The financial powers long ago ordained that St. Paul was not to have any kind of a grain market. But we've captured one just the same.

There are other things for a city that would be metropolitan to break away from—castes, for instance, that separate the people whose work gives grimy hands from those who do equally valuable work for society in ways which cause no grime.

Brainerd intends to obliterate that division by training all the school children in manual work, so that they will spend every other week in actual work in the shops.

There are also the tangled meshes of careless government that trip a city in its forward stride, another problem that St. Paul knows all too well. Brainerd has been advised to get a city manager.

Brainerd's awakening is an indication of the life that throbs through Northern Minnesota. St. Paul is the heart of those arteries of life blood, Brainerd. We've been in this business of breaking away for some time. Whatever you do, you will find St. Paul well stocked with material to give you a start, and with all kinds of community experience."

WINS STATE FAIR TRIP

Martin J. Olson's Essay on "Corn" Wins Him that Honor in County Competition

Martin J. Olson, address Brainerd, Route No. 3, has won the Crow Wing county school children essay contest, writing upon the subject of "Corn" and the prize is a free trip to the Minnesota state fair, September 7 to 13. The fair association will pay the expenses of the lad, with the exception of $2 that he will be expected to pay. Live stock corn, clover and alfalfa were the subjects assigned by the state committee.

Erick Tysk, of Deerwood, writing on "Clover," took second prize and was elected alternative.

HAS A FINE GREENHOUSE

J. J. Untereker, 114 Gillis Avenue, Has Built up a Fine, Growing Business

CATERS TO LARGE HOME TRADE

He Works as Machinist at the Shops and Uses Spare Time for Florist Work

An example of perseverance and industry is that of J. J. Untereker, of 114 Gillis avenue, who working as a machinist in the Northern Pacific railway shops, uses his spare time to build up a greenhouse business and has made a success of the same, having the able cooperation of his wife.

He started in a small way and secured a plot of ground measuring 50 by 290 feet. He built two hot houses measuring 24 by 35 feet and 25 by 40 feet, a boiler room, potting shed and an office. He did all his steam fitting and boiler installation, with 1,500 square feet of radiation. Untereker's father was a florist and it was at home that he gained his love for plants and flowers.

Crow Wing county soil reinforced with black dirt and ground bone meal fertilizer is the foundation on which his flowers and plants grow.

Today the greenhouses carry a large stock of hydrangeas, feverfew, Lady Washington geraniums, salvia, double petunias, fuchsias, lobelias, canna, vinca vines, drecina, begonias, ageratum, etc. Out in the open are beds of pansies, tomato plants, verbenas, asters, etc. There are 6,000 pansies and 5,000 tomato plants growing sturdily and vigorously.

Seven years ago, Mr. Untereker and family came to Brainerd. Today he owns his place. His savings have been put in the greenhouses. His wife helps him in the business and two little daughters take a great interest in the flowers. There is Angela aged 6 and Lois aged 4. Angela talks flowers to the neighbors and the visitors.

The Decoration Day and Mothers Day trade this year eclipsed all former records and many orders are being received from outside. Cut flowers will soon be carried, as there is a great demand for them.

HE WANTED A JOB.

The Red Bearded Sailor Who Insisted That He Could Sing.

One day many years ago, when Billy Emerson was in his heyday and all San Francisco was at his feet, he was accosted by a sailor with a long red beard. The sailor said that he could sing and wanted a job.

"I have no opening," said Emerson. The sailor, however, was obdurate and several times during the day importuned Emerson to give him a chance. To get away from his tormentor Emerson was compelled to go to his hotel.

Near the theater was a saloon where the minstrel boys were wont to congregate after a show. It was of the usual kind, with a room in the rear, with a piano and a piano player. Into this room, when the performance was over, went the sailor and asked the man at the piano if he would change places with him and allow him (the sailor) to play in his place. The musician acquiesced.

The performers trooped to the front of the saloon, and soon there came from the rear room the strains of "Sally in Our Alley," sung as only one man in the world could sing it.

"Boys," said Emerson, "that's Tom Dixon." A rush was made for the rear, where it transpired that the "sailor" was none other than the great minstrel tenor. He had gone to Australia with a company. It disbanded, and he worked his way home as an ordinary seaman, during which time he grew the long red whiskers.

Did he get the job with Emerson? You didn't know Billy or you would never have asked that—Edward Le Roy Rice in Chicago Journal.

His Brand of English.

At the Union ironworks, San Francisco, a steamer was undergoing repairs. The chief engineer—a Scot, of course—requiring a hammer in a hurried moment, turned to a German mechanic and in his momentary excitement, lapsing into his native speech, said, "Gie us yer pelty, mon."

"Vat?" asked the Teuton in surprise.

"Yer pelty—pelty!"

"It's yer hammer he wants," interrupted another Scot, who was also working on the job.

"Thank the Lord there's one mon among ye who understands the king's English!" growled the chief engineer as he took the "pelty."—Argonaut.

The Blue Sky.

The blue sky which reveals itself as the hemispherical vault of the firmament in the absence of clouds is the far depths of the air sending back to the observer some part of the solar illumination which they receive. The light thus returned to the eye is "blue" simply because the particles of the air are of such exceedingly diminutive size that they can effectively deal with only the smallest of the luminous vibrations—that is, with the "blue" undulations. There are a few faint interminglings of the other colored rays in the blue of the sky, but they are in such trifling quantity that the blue swallows them up.

CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for sheriff of Crow Wing county and respectfully solicit the support of all voters at the primary election to be held June 16, 1914, and if nominated and elected I pledge my best efforts in serving the people of the county.

I have been a resident and taxpayer of this county for 24 years, previous to which I served five years in the U. S. regular army, as sergeant of Co. B, 15th infantry, where I received a military training that will, I believe, be a valuable aid in performing the duties of the office, which, I feel confident I can perform efficiently and satisfactorily, if elected.

Respectfully,

ERICK KRONBERG.

Candidate for Representative from Crow Wing County

I respectfully solicit the support of voters of Crow Wing county at the primary election to be held June 16, 1914, and if nominated and elected, I pledge my best efforts to the honest and efficient service of the people of my county and state.

I advocate and if elected will support: Legislation for greater state aid for roads and bridges. Legislative provision for development of state lands by the state. Any legislation that will help compel proper business-like economy and increase the efficiency of administration of the state's business affairs.

I believe firmly in the rule of the people and if elected shall support every measure which may tend to increase the power of the people in state government and all measures which may tend to the betterment of conditions in rural communities.

Yours very truly,

EDWARD R. SYVERSON
